President's Reflections

THANKS to everyone who "pitched" in to help make the 2022 Winetrouts tons of fun and very enjoyable. After a long recess at the Everett courts, Bob Sperber spent many hours getting them ready for action and cleaning much of the buildup on the roofs. Clubs took turns providing coffee and donuts. Don and Rhonda Davis drove the Hall of Fame trailer to four of the tournaments. Rhonda took care of the entries and prize money. Cindy Claussen ran Winetrout 5 and is now prepared to run the Skagit tournaments. Jay Stumpf drove the trailer over the pass to the east side for storage after Winetrout 6. Phyllis Quist ran the computer at Winetrout 6. Also, thanks go to the pitchers who drove long distances to compete. Some paid for motels the night before and some got up VERY, VERY early to make the trip and then drove home the same day. Thanks to the score keepers, those who brought out and put back the tools, chairs and heaters, and everyone who participated. The Everett Parks Department staff was very cooperative as well. Winter is behind us and we will see you at the Tulip Open on Saturday, April 9th. The 2-Month Weather Forecast for April 1-9 in Burlington is "Sunny, turning warm." See? No excuses. April 10-16 is "T-storms, warm." God Bless, Jon.

ARTICLE FOR SHOES NEWS

By Phyl Quist

Saturday, March 19th saw the culmination of the 2022 Winetrout Winter Classic Tournament. The Seattle courts were uninhabitable and Jon negotiated with Forest Park in Everett and that worked out great. It kind of felt like coming home again. A work party was planned to clean up the courts after being idle for several years. Then a call went out – Bob Sperber had taken on the task and all was cleaned, trimmed and ready for pitching. What a guy – thanks Bob.

#1 was cancelled due to a snowstorm and #4 found many of our pitchers in Arizona. But somehow we all survived the rain, wind and cold. Thanks to Don and Rhonda for bringing the HOF Trailer for the computer use. Rob & Blanca Hettinga from Oregon joined us twice and Bernie Martel, also from Oregon pitched in #6. Also we were delighted to have the John Alexander family drop by. John was the heart and soul of the Everett Club for many years. This years' Winetrout champions are – Men's Division, Dennis Tutewiler, Elder Division, Fritz Oberst and Women's Division, Phyllis Quist. The Executive Board voted to retire the traveling trophy, which will be housed in the Hall of Fame Trailer and also to dispense with the % trophy. We're all waiting for spring and sunshine to return.
