Commentary: Jim Link

Does this sound familiar? When the days start getting longer, and the snow disappears from the horseshoe pits, it really starts to feel like it's time to get out there. Go out, see that the wood box is empty, fill the wood box, throw another chunk of wood on the fire, then it's time for another cup of coffee. Fill the coffee cup, the heat from the woodstove feels good, stand by the woodstove looking at the horseshoe courts. Yeah they're probably dry enough...the covers have been on all winter, go out...see the mailperson come, walk down to the mailbox, get the mail. ...take a little time to read the mail, time for lunch, have some lunch, sit down, watch some noon news, look at the clock...time to run some errands. Come back...getting late and a little chilly outside...throw another chunk in the woodstove...sit down, time for some evening news.

Could be getting old maybe?...naa it's still winter. Maybe tomorrow.

Got the tournament results from Debi in time for Shoes News...Great turnout for Winetrout #1. Some good games showing up for the first tournament of the year. Some unfamiliar names showing up as well. Always anxious to meet new horseshoe pitchers.

New also (to me) is this website address

Opportunity!!

Have you ever thought about running for an NHPA Officer position? Well now is your chance to be heard and make a difference. This year the positions up for election are President, 1st VP, 3rd VP, and 5th VP. Lorraine Sternberg, current 3rd VP, has announced that she will not be seeking re-election. At the time of this article, I do not know the status of any other nominations. If anyone out there is considering running for any of these positions, you must submit your announcement to President Stu Sipma and to Newsline Editor Paula Summerlin by February 1st.

Hello all ! What a start to the year ! We had the first Winetrout and what a great turn out. We had a hand full of new faces and I think most of them are 40 footers. Love to see that. What a great job from the group to get new people. They seem very excited to be a part of our group, so as we play them, make them feel welcome. "You don't have to lose to them, but..."

Rhonda is working hard to learn the ins and outs of being treasurer. She is getting the cards out as quick as she can. Thank you for your patience.

We got a call from Cy and he said it didn't look like he would be pitching anymore. It was great to hear from him but sad to here we lost another pitcher. Since I have been involved in horseshoes these last 6 years I have seen some super nice people have to give up the game due to health reasons. Cy is one of my favorites. Dan Leary is another one that comes to the top of my list. I wish you guys well and think of you guys often.

Our group is a little spread out right now. I talked to Russ and he is headed for the Valley of the Sun tournament in Phoenix. Jon Turnbull has talked about going and Paul Quam is going to be there. Gene Kuiken is taking off to get some traveling in before gas prices get any worse. We also have some snowbirds not yet home. Let's keep them in our thoughts so they will travel and come home to Wash- ington safe and sound.

Until we meet on the courts.
Don

THANK YOU FOR YOUR SUPPORT!!!!

Hi Jim,

Cathie and I are in an RV park in Bullhead City, Arizona for 3 months. Left home a week ago to escape the very wet and cold conditions of home. Don't miss the rain but it seems we traded it for very windy conditions and below normal temps. Anyway, our first mail forwarding arrived today and in it was the January Shoes News. I just want to say that I like the new look and blue color, especially on the front page. I see that Shoes News is able to maintain a nice group of advertisers, something that eludes many other newsletters. While new members may be difficult to find, you obviously have the "right ideas" as it applies to support by advertisers.

Here's hoping you and all the other Washington State members have an enjoyable 2011 pitching season. By the way, I sincerely appreciate your continuing promotion for the NHPF.

Dave Loucks

2011 Renewals

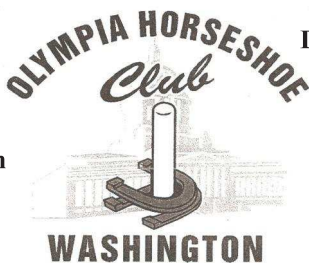

See the new rate schedule for memberships and newsletter renewals on the inside of the back page. The above list will be updated as new subscriptions and renewals are received. All subscriptions for ads and the newsletter expire in March. If you have not renewed your ad or your membership, you will not get the April issue, and you ad will not appear. Your club ads and your timely subscriptions are important. As always, when you go South for the winter, you will have to re-subscribe before you can pitch.

that came with the horseshoe results in an email from Debi McRae. <http://svhorseshoeclub.yolasite.com>. Great looking Skagit Valley horseshoe club website...check it out.

Interviewer needed. Everyone has a story. Page #6 of Shoes News is looking for someone who can interview people and write a story about them. With the internet it's a snap to write a story, get a picture, and email it to the editor about someone we meet on the courts and would like to get to know better. Show us your talent. Get that story and email it to jhlink2@gorge.net. We need your name on page 2 as an associate editor.

On page 2 is the masthead, where information about Shoes News is published. A good friend, Henry Knauff called recently inquiring about the new rates for Shoes News. He noted that the rate structure for the various categories of pitchers, associate members, lifetime members, news-line subscribers, lifetime members is confusing and adding to the confusion was the new rate change. The rate for Shoes News was increased to $20 by the executive board at the annual meeting.

I agree. Additionally, in the masthead, the rate for Shoes News was posted as $10/yr. That has now been changed to $20. Thanks Henry for calling that to my attention.

With Rhonda's help, I believe we are going to wring the confusion out and make easy enough so that even your editor can understand the rate structure. As evidence that we're working on that, inside the back page is a revised statement of what you need to send to Rhonda to renew your membership. Look it over. If you can see ways to improve it and make it even clearer, drop me a note. With your help we will get it right.

What is Celibacy? Celibacy can be a choice in life, or a condition imposed by circumstances.

While attending a Marriage Weekend, Frank and his wife Ann listened to the instructor declare, "It is essential that husbands and wives know the things that are important to each other." He then addressed the men. "Can you name and describe your wife's favorite flower?" Frank leaned over, touched Ann's arm gently, and whispered, "Gold Medal-All-Purpose, isn't it?"

" And thus began Frank's life of celibacy..."

ARMSTRONG'S SECRET

In case you didn't already know this little tidbit of trivia, it might make you chuckle when you read it. On July 20, 1969, as commander of the Apollo 11 lunar module, Neil Armstrong was the first person to set foot on the moon.

His first words after stepping on the moon, "That's one small step for man, one giant leap for mankind" were televised to earth and heard by millions.

But just before he re-entered the lander, he made the enigmatic remark, "Good luck Mr. Gorsky".

Many people at NASA thought it was a casual remark concerning some rival soviet cosmonaut. However upon checking there was no Gorsky in either the Russian or American space programs.

Over the years many people questioned Armstrong as to what the 'good luck Mr. Gorsky' statement meant but Armstrong always just smiled.

On July 5, 1995 in Tampa Bay FL, while answering questions following a speech, a reporter brought up the 26 year old question to Armstrong. This time he responded.

Mr. Gorsky had died, so Neil felt he could now answer the question.

In 1938 when he was a kid in a small mid-western town, he was playing baseball with a friend in the backyard. His friend hit the ball which landed in his neighbors yard by their bedroom window.

His neighbors were Mr. and Mrs. Gorsky. As he leaned down to pick up the ball young Armstrong heard Mrs. Gorsky shouting at Mr. Gorsky "Sex! You want sex?! You'll get sex when the kid next door walks on the moon!"

True story.
