President's Reflections

A new year for horseshoes is underway with Winetrout 1 and 2 in the books. The weather was cooperative for both tournaments except the passes for Winetrout 2 did not behave. I am really delighted with the improvements the Seattle Park Department performed for us recently. We have a new, very secure door for our storage shed, new lighting in every court, and a new electric circuit box as well. The grounds crew edged all our runways as well. Having use of the lawn bowling facility is really great so we can get together in the morning and enjoy some coffee and donuts and set up the computer and printer.

Kudos to Bob Sperber, who willingly used his van to store our equipment (chairs and garden tools) until the shed was repaired. THANK YOU BOB!

Our Executive Board meeting will take place at 8:30 AM on February 25 before we begin Winetrout 3. Our WSHPA Constitution states, "The Executive Board shall be comprised of the WSHPA President, Vice President, 2nd Vice President, 3rd, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer, Statistician, Regional Director, Shoes News Editor and one member representing each club chartered and recognized as an affiliate of the WSHPA."

Do your best to attend Winetrout 3 in Seattle. Hopefully the weather will be nice or at least bearable, but if we have to cancel, (lots of snow or extreme conditions) I will do my best to let everyone know. By the way, Washington State sure has a great horse pitching family and I am so proud to be a part of this family.
