Well, the highlight of our horseshoe pitching year is commencing with the approach in a couple of weeks of the World Tournament in Montgomery, Alabama, July 25th—August 6th.

In a few short days, many of you will be making your way to Montgomery, Alabama for a time to reunite with old friends and annual acquaintances and to meet new horseshoe family members. It is an experience every horseshoe pitcher should have in their pitching career.

If you have missed an opportunity to attend Worlds, don't wait, decide to go to worlds no matter what your average. Make plans for next year or the year after, and don't let anything get in the way. The experience will be unforgettable no matter your finish.

But in the meantime plan to follow our Washington pitchers attending World this year, root for them to do their very best but most of all to have fun with the pitching family from all over the world and come home with renewed enthusiasm for our sport.

Good luck and God bless to all traveling to Worlds this month.

Hello:

I went to the Strawberry and John Byfield Open this weekend. Saw a lot of faces I hadn't seen in awhile. It was good talking to all the pitchers again.

The weather was on the sour side on Saturday. That did not put a damper on the tournament, the pitchers put on the gear and moved on. Naturally the weather got better in the afternoon once it was over. Sunday was perfectly sunny.

Congrats to all the class winners.
See you on the courts.

The Prez

Thoughts and Prayers

Remembering Harold "Hal" Brewer June 5, 1932—June 8, 2016

Hal Brewer, 84, of Shoreline WA went home to be with the Lord June 8, 2016 after a recent diagnosis of lung cancer. His wife of 64 years, Helen, daughter, Barb and grandson, Christopher Harris were by his side.

Hal was born in Fernie, BC and moved to Vancouver, BC where he married Helen and started their family. Work opportunities brought them to Seattle in the 1950's and for most of their life they lived in Lynnwood. One year ago they sold their home of 40+ years and moved to the wonderful independent retirement community of Cristwood in Shoreline.

Hal loved the Lord and had a servant's heart. He was a very generous man, often lending his hand to neighbors or friends. He was primary caregiver for Helen just after her stroke a few years back.

Hal was an avid gardener and kept his landscaped yard in tip-top shape, and also enjoyed camping. He played the mandolin and had a gifted ear for music as well as an artistic gift of painting portraits. Hal loved being with people and was a good storyteller.

Hal will be truly missed by his family and friends. A service in his honor will be held at Alderwood Community Church, 3403 Alderwood Mall Blvd. Lynnwood on July 6th at 2:00 pm.

In Memory of Larry Getts October 14, 1937—June 7, 2016

I am very sad to announce that Larry Getts passed away yesterday, June 7, 2016. He had a major setback in his recovery which became irreversible. He was a loving husband and father and will be missed by all his family and friends.

There will not be a formal "Funeral" but an informal "Gathering of Friends" on June 22, 2016 from 11:00 am to 2:00 pm at the Olympia Chapel of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latterday Saints. (45th Ave and Olympia Street). There will be a light luncheon served. Anyone who wishes to, may share stories of their association with Larry.

I am grateful for all those who have kept us in their thoughts and prayers over the past three months as Larry was recuperating from the initial heart seizure in late March.

There will be a family Memorial get-together later in the Summer in Kalispell, Montana. Extended family members who cannot attend now are welcome to join us at that time.

For those of you who are concerned about me, please know that I have accepted this as part of the Lords plan for Larry and that I will be okay. I plan on moving back home to Montana, where I grew up, to be closer to my children and their families.

~ Lou Jean Getts

BC INTERNATIONAL HIGHWAYMAN OPEN IN ABBOTSFORD BIG SUCCESS

Five Washington State pitchers entered and enjoyed the BC International Highwayman Open Tournament on May 21st and 22nd in Abbotsford, B.C. Don Davis, Don Ebey, Jim Yowell, Jim and Phyl Quist all competed.

After pitching on Saturday we all gathered for dinner at the Highwayman Pub which has sponsored this tournament for many years. A great time was had by all.

At the close of day two Jim Quist finished 3rd in Elder D30, Phyl placed 3rd in Women's B, Jim Yowell came 2nd in Elder B30 and our Don Davis was 1st in Men's A.

The great thing about our sport is that we are constantly making new friends wherever we pitch. Such was the case of our trip this past weekend. We renewed old friendships and made several new ones. I would like to encourage our Washington members to make an effort to join in this fun weekend at the B.C. International next year. The hospitality is superb.

On the tournament trail with... Archie Silcox

Archie was born in Wichita Falls, TX, but has spent most of his life in Washington state. He has an AA degree in Art, hence has spent most of his life in the Sign business. He has been married to Carol for 53 years and have 4 kids, two of them older than Jay Buhner. He is retired Air Force, and at our family picnics growing up, we played lots of horseshoes.

My first horseshoe meeting was with Gary Bowlby in 1990. He was practicing in Silverdale, at the waterfront park, and I asked if I could pitch with him. He told me about pitching and I couldn't believe that there was organized horseshoe clubs all around the state. I started pitching in the Kitsap Horseshoe Club which was a real good way to start with Art and Carol Sperber, Herb Criss, Bob Clark and his family. Four of us, Wayne Koletzki, Gary Bowlby, Terry Wood and I, would practice for hours on our own courts we built. The four of us used to practice three times a week until after dark, we would play from memory and listen for the sound of steel on steel the rest of the night.

My first game was in Port Townsend. Class D, should have been Class F. I didn't even know how to keep score. I tied with Bob Jewett and came in second.

My most "memorable" game was with Gene Kuiken. I had a pretty comfortable 36-9 lead when he stopped me right in the middle of my turn to say, "Silcox, this is the last score you are going to get in this game, and I'm going to win." I didn't play badly the rest of the way, he just came on strong, very strong and got me at the finish line 40-36. It was a very painful lesson.

What I enjoy most about playing horseshoes, is the people. I've met some of the finest people on the courts and I enjoy the competition it stirs up. People may get mad but they generally keep their composure. One of my favorite places to play is Burlington, thanks Jon Turnbull and gang along the Skagit River.

One interesting note: When living in Spokane, a number of years earlier, I was really involved in karate and made black belt with a buddy of mine who happened to live next door to Henry Knauft. I wish I would have known that sooner, I could have played horseshoes with one of the greatest.

I have pitched in one World Tournament in 2000 in Bismark, ND. I pitched in Class D and took 15th place. In state competition, I've won two State Class Championships and took 2nd a couple of times also.

My best advice to new pitchers: Practice with someone who is better than you, it will make you a better pitcher.

The grip I started with was the picnic flop and then to 1 3/4 and 1 1/2 turns. I can move back and forth between them. I have used Ted Allens and now my favorites are Dead Eye (heavies). I have been recovering from D.E. (blood clots) and am now at 30Ft. and getting back into the game. My average is slowly improving. You 40 ft pitchers had better be on the look out.

A tail gunner was being court-martialed. "What did you hear in your headset?" demanded a superior officer.

"Well," replied the airman, "I heard my squadron leader holler, 'Enemy planes at 5 o'clock!'"

"What action did you take?" persisted another officer. "Why sir," replied the gunner, "I just sat back and waited.

It was only 4:30."

GREAT DISPLAY OF HORSESHOES AT THE WIEDRICH MEM. AT OREGON CITY

On May 29th in Oregon City at the Wiedrich Memorial, we had one of the best stretches of horseshoe pitching seen in years. In a 14 frame stretch in the game between Russ Phillips and Don Davis, Russ had 27 ringers and Don had 26 ringers. For the tournament, Russ averaged 85.2 % and Don was just over 70 %. Congratulations to these two great pitchers and gentlemen on a great performance. They had 11 four-deads, including a string of 8 in a row. THAT'S SOME DISPLAY OF HORSESHOE PITCHING!!!! Russ won the game with a 87.8 ringer %, while Don had a 73.0 ringer %. Russ Phillips beat Don Davis by the final score of 44-11! Barry, thanks for telling us about this fabulous game of horseshoes.
