YOUR 2014 WSHPA WORLD TOURNAMENT PITCHERS

Commentary: Jerry Clark

The 2014 World Horseshoe Tournament takes place from July 14th through the 26th in Buffalo/Hamburg NY. Best wishes to all our WSHPA entrants who are making the trip to New York state to participate in this years Championship tournament. You will find the pitching schedules for all our participants in this issue of Shoes News. Although the WSHPA is relatively small in terms of numbers compared to many other states, we have certainly held our own in recent years in terms of top level performances on the World stage. Matt Fuller won the 2010 Jr. World Championship, after placing second in 2009. Russ Phillips followed that up, with an Elders World title in 2011. Phyl Quist won her class at the championships that same year. There have been additional class championships by Monty McLaughlin and John McCarthy III in 2013 at St. George, Utah, as well as some other strong finishes by our members. Both Matt Fuller and Don Davis pitched in the Mens class A-1 and in the Mens Championship Class, and Patrick McCarthy pitched in the Cadet Championship Class, as well as Russ Phillips in the Elders Championship Class..This year as I follow online, the results of our Washington contingent, and hope they bring home

THE 40' FLIP.... ALIVE AND WELL

As we work our way through the pitching season , we see many different styles of pitching. There are numerous types of grips, and turns, 13/4, 11/4, 3/4 are some of the more common ones. There are quite a few 30' flip shoe pitchers, and rightly so, because the flip from that distance can be very effective, but throwing any type of flip shoe from 40' is a whole different ballgame, and there aren't very many pitchers doing it. The three pictured above, Monty McLaughlin, Gerald Stangland, and Ron McLaughlin, are three of the best, but John Bruhn, and Rob Churchill are a couple more very good ones that come to mind. The thing that makes the 40' flip so challenging, is maintaining good alignment, and avoiding those dreaded bounce- offs. Those turn shoe guys are really good.... but long live the flip!

Hi all, we are done with another Strawberry Open and what a great weekend. The Burlington Club, really put on a spread. Jon Turnbull said he was in charge of the weather, and he knocked it out of the park. It was nice to see so many people show up to try their hand at our game. Russ looked ready to take on all comers at worlds. He will be tough. We also picked up a new pitcher that really seems excited to give horseshoes a chance to win him over. Kirc Hale won 4 games on his first day, Great job! It will be fun to watch and see how good he gets when he gets horseshoes that are made for tournament play. Sunday was in memory of John Byfield. I heard a great phrase on Sunday: "We don't play our opponent, we pitch with them." What a great way of putting it. Also, the word is out from my doctor that said I will not be playing for the State title this year. I will be in the hospital, or just getting home from a long nap. So that also means vice presidents will be in charge of running our state tournament in Kennewick. It is a different type of tournament, but I know you guys can pull it off. I wish I could come down and be a part of the group, but it is not in the cards.

I would like to say thank you to everyone who stops by and drops a note checking in on me. I have been feeling great, and can't wait to get this done and go back to being normal. "You know what I meant." See you on the courts! Don

Thoughts and Prayers

Bob Clark is weakening more each day, according to his daughter, Bonnie Lewis. He is at home, with care from his wife Natalie, Bonnie, and home health caregivers. He would appreciate cards and notes from his old friends in horseshoes.

Remembering Ted Bostwick

Ted was one of the founding fathers of our sport in the State of Washington. He loved horseshoe pitching and he loved the pitchers. We sometimes forget that for many, that was their life and their family.

Ted was the significant person who started the Seattle Horseshoe Club. Later he had yearly tournaments in Sequim, where he lived for awhile.

Ted traveled with Jim and myself several times. One year Jim, Ted and Peter Clark drove our van to the Spearfish, S.D. World tournament. Ted was driving the van and it was time to change drivers. He stopped and got out but failed to set the brake and the van started rolling. It ran over his foot. Peter jumped over to the driver's seat and stopped it. Ted didn't get hurt, just had a sore foot – but it could have been worse.

Another trip was to the Bismark, N.D. tournament. On the way home the air bag suspension system broke in our car and it was a very bumpy hard ride home. Ted said it was the worst ride ever!

He also went with us to Kitchener, Ontario. He wasn't feeling well and he called 911 for the medic's. They checked him over, could find nothing wrong, they said he was okay. He was staying in a different dorm than we were and I think he was just lonesome and needed some attention!

The last time I saw Ted was at the Pacific Northwest in Yakima. His dear friend, Gigi, brought him over and he was in his glory just watching the pitching, keeping score and telling the stories of horseshoes through the years.

Ted was a very dear friend and a very special man. He will be missed.

as much hardware as they can carry, there is also a part of me that is rooting for our fellow northwesterners from Oregon and Idaho to do well back in the Empire state.

Just out of curiosity, has there ever been an individual who has dominated their game as much as Alan Francis has the sport of horseshoe pitching? Some would say, Tiger Woods has been pretty dominant. To that statement, I, and those who are going to be watching Francis pitch in Buffalo, New York later this month, would say an emphatic New York style .... fahgetaboutit !! The scary part of it is, he is still a young man. The 44 year old Francis, grew up in Blythedale, MO. where he learned the game from his father. He and wife Amy, also a very accomplished pitcher, and son Alex are residents of Defiance, Ohio. Alan holds 18 Mens World Titles and counting. He not only wins, but he almost always beats the very best horseshoe pitchers in the world in dominating fashion. Even more importantly, he handles all his pitching success and accolades with the class and dignity that makes horseshoe pitchers everywhere proud to say that he is "our" Champion. . There is no doubt in my mind, that by the time he hangs up his horseshoes, he will not only own every record in the book, but he will hold a number of records that will probably never be broken.

To our WSHPA family, travel safely, see all the sights, relish the experience, and bring home enough memories to last a lifetime. Good luck, and great pitching everyone!

On a couple other topics, if you attend an out of state tournament, and want to be credited for the 8 points toward TPOY, you must either call me, (my number is 425-293-3438) leave a message if I don't answer. Or you must tell me about it in person. Secondly, I can't emphasize enough, my desire for your input in Shoes News. Your thoughts, stories, writings, pictures, anything you think would be of interest to our horseshoe pitching family will be appreciated.

Since our last newsletter, we have lost two longtime members of our horseshoe pitching family. Bill Kingsley passed away on May 29 at age 83, and Ted Bostwick on June 1, at age 94. More information on their lives can be found on page 3 of this newsletter. Our thoughts and prayers go out to their families at this time of their loss.

Everybody have a great fourth of July celebration, please be safe, and don't forget the Seattle Open which takes place the very next day.

Olympia Club Mixing a Little Fun With Their Work

They'll Host The Lakefair Open On July 12th

Yauger Park In Olympia, One Of The Great Venues Of The WSHPA

Friday June 6th our club had a fun day pitching and enjoying a delicious lunch. We had only (13) pitchers, but that was pretty good for a Friday work day. The Park is replacing (3) or (4) pits and should be ready for our July 12th Tournament. Here are a few pictures of our activities.
