WIZDOM FROM THE PREZ

Well, here we are getting ready to show off our state and pitchers to the world ! Good luck to all of you. Make us proud on and off the courts.

I feel we have some pitchers that give us a legitimate chance to bring home a first place finish. There are always the "under the radar" pitchers who can always come from any position in their class to bring home a trophy too.

I want to say "thank you" to Ronnie Burt for taking on the Regional Director duties and Larry Lewis for taking over the Shoes News. Ronnie is a newer member helping out to keep our organization moving. Larry isn't really new, but a good guy for computer stuff. It takes everyone being involved to keep our state moving forward. A heartfelt thank you and good job to Vic Magnus for taking over the Regional Director duties unexpectedly over a year ago. Also, thank you so much to Jon Martin and his wife, Chris, for doing an excellent job in keeping our Shoes News going for many years. The quality and timeliness of the publications was excellent.

I will keep this short because there will be a lot to talk about in the next prez message.

Good luck to you all. Safe travels to and from the World Tournament. Have a great time.

See you on the courts,

Don

There will also be other horseshoe related items, like jewelry. We will need help in this booth. Sign-up sheet will be available at the world tournament.

Our Washington State Hall of Fame trailer will be on display at the world tournament. We will need someone to be with the trailer when it is open to the public. A sign-up sheet will be available at the world tournament.

We have someone who will be opening and closing the horseshoe pits at Eastgate park.
