We begin this June Newsletter with the sad news that we have lost two more of our longtime horseshoe pitchers. Brad Zumbuhl passed away on April 28th from liver cancer, and then we lost Paul Tutewiler on May 4th. Both Brad and Paul were great guys and outstanding pitchers and will be greatly missed by everyone in the WSHPA. Please keep Kathleen Zumbuhl, and Clydene Tutewiler and their families in your thoughts and prayers in the days ahead. It seems we have lost many good friends the past couple of years. You can read Brad and Paul's obituaries on page three and page eight.

The World Horseshoe Tournament, this year hosted by the good city of Montgomery, Alabama will be held from July 25th until August 6th at the Multiplex at Cramton Bowl. We don't have the final tally of how many of our state's pitchers will be attending, but we will post it in the July Newsletter. I know that all those who attend will receive a big helping of southern hospitality during their stay in Montgomery. We wish plenty of good pitching and lots of journey mercies to all those who are planning on making their way to Alabama regardless of their method of travel. Before then, there are a number of tournaments

In Memory of Paul James Tutewiler - November 16, 1933 - May 4, 2016

Paul James Tutewiler was born in Momence, Illinois on November 16, 1933. He was welcomed by his parents and two older sisters, Leafy and Alvera. His family moved to California when he was young in search of prosperity when his dad bought a piece of property that was said to have gold on it. At 13, his family moved to Fairfax, Washington. He attended White River High School and graduated from there in 1951.

He enlisted in the U.S. Navy after graduation and was stationed in Astoria, Oregon. He met Clydene through mutual friends. When they were courting, he would hitchhike from Astoria on Friday and back on Sunday nights so he could report for duty Monday morning. He received orders to transfer to Long Beach, California in early 1953. At this time, he and Clydene realized there would be no more weekend trips to the Buckley area and decided to get married. They married at the home of her parents on April 14th of that same year. They moved to Long Beach where they were part of the Navy community. Paul travelled to Japan and Korea on board the USS Collett while Clydene held down the fort at home.

When Paul was discharged from active duty, they moved back to Washington State to be near family. Paul went to work for the Boeing Company in 1955. He started work on the assembly line and 36 years later when he retired he was a Quality Control Supervisor.

Paul was an active community member. He served as a volunteer firefighter with the Sumner Fire Department for 25 years. During this time, he rose to the rank of Lieutenant and received both the Jack Woodward Firefighter of the Year Award in 1993 and the Fire Chiefs Award in 1995. He was given a key to the City of Sumner for his 25 years of faithful service.

Paul took a lot of pride in his family. As his two children were growing up, he helped with Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts and Little League. No matter what his kids did, he was always there to support them. The same can be said for his grandchildren. Whether they were playing baseball or football, riding motocross or golfing, Paul could be found somewhere on the sidelines cheering them on.

Paul enjoyed many activities throughout his 82 years. He made friends wherever he went. Both he and Clydene square-danced and round danced for several years. He was even known to do a line dance or two. He bowled in a league for many years and loved to go camping and fishing. He was a member of the Sumner United Methodist Church for over 40 years where he handed out over 200 cross lapel pins to friends and newcomers. He also belonged to the Puyallup Elks Lodge for over 50 years.

Since retirement, he and Clydene have put many miles on their vehicles as they hit the road to destinations throughout the U.S. Every time they took off for a new adventure, they would sing Willie Nelson's, "On the Road Again". One of their grandest adventures was a month long trip up the Al-Can Highway to Alaska. It was a trip of a lifetime and they made tons of wonderful memories along the road. They also spent numerous years doing the 'snowbird' thing; wintering in Palm Springs and Arizona and returning to the great Northwest for the spring and summer months.

Paul was not one to sit still for very long and always had some kind of project going. He loved doing things with his hands and blessed many of his friends with gifts from his woodworking shop.

He loved sports and spent many hours watching local baseball and football teams as well as the professionals. The Seahawks and Mariners were his favorites and he loved taking in a game at the Tacoma Rainiers.

In the late 1990's, Paul developed a new passion, pitching horseshoes. He was a member of the Olympia Horseshoe Club and made many friends throughout his travels with the horseshoe groups. He has three Washington State plaques that are full of all the different tournaments that he participated and placed in. He travelled to the World Horseshoe Tournaments several times and enjoyed meeting people from all over.

His other love in his recent years was the Sumner Food Bank Backpacks for Children program. He and Clydene helped spearhead the program between the Sumner United Methodist Church and the Food Bank. Each month they would pick up the food collected through the church and transport it to the food bank. It always brought him joy to see Clydene's excitement at making the announcement each month of how much food and money had been collected for this worthwhile project.

Paul went to his Heavenly home on May 4, 2016. He was preceded in death by his parents, Paul O. and Estel (Randolph) Tutewiler, his older sister and brother-in-law, Leafy (Finnace 'Slim') Willis, and three nephews, Allen and David Willis and Larry Bell. He is survived by his wife of 63 years, Clydene; his sister, Alvera (Lawrence) Bell; his daughter, Paula (Mark) Wheeler; his son, Dennis (Pam) Tutewiler; four grandchildren and four great grandchildren as well as many extended family members..

He was loved by all and will be missed by many.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made in his name to either Sumner United Methodist Church or the Sumner Food Bank coming up in our state to take advantage of. The attendance at our tournaments so far have been quite low, why I'm not sure, the weather has been very nice. Maybe everyone has Mariner fever. The local nine are finally playing something resembling competitive baseball for the first time in years. Whatever they are doing, I hope they keep on doing it. Please, don't anyone wake them up.

The state's Singles and Doubles registration forms in this months newsletter, will be the only time we will run them. Some tournament directors may decide to print a few copies and have them available at their tournaments, but that will be your only other opportunity to get a registration form. Another thing to make a note of, the state Doubles percentage chart will only be run in the July Shoes News, so start looking for a partner for the state Doubles tournament. Your combined average must not exceed 110%. Best of luck to all those who enter the states Singles and Doubles tournaments in 2016.

One final thought, I want to thank all of you who have sent cards and emails to me. I have not been feeling all that great recently, and to get a card or letter of encouragement at those times, is such a boost both physically and mentally. I have now completed four of the twelve treatments in this round. I've lost my hair, and forty pounds, but my Lord is walking every step of the way with me, and it is enough for me to know that He will never leave me or forsake me on this tough journey. I've learned so much in the midst of going through this ordeal with cancer. Probably one of the greatest things I've learned is this ...if you have faithful friends, you have a great blessing. They can help you get through the toughest and most difficult times. I've had many of these people tell me that I can call them, at any hour of the day, 24/7. These are friends that understand unconditional love, when everybody else is going, they are coming. An old pastor that Susan and I once had called them "sermons in shoes." How true.

A cowboy applied for an insurance policy, "Have you ever had any accidents?" asked the agent. "Nope," said the cowboy, "though a bronc did kick in two of my ribs last year, and a couple of years ago a rattlesnake bit my ankle." "Wouldn't you call those accidents?" replied the puzzled agent. "Naw," the cowboy said, "they did it on purpose."

Happy 60th Anniversary from the entire WSHPA to Dave and Patti Goodwin, on the 28th of May. Congratulations!

After being laid off from five different jobs in four months. Arnold was hired by a warehouse. But one day he lost control of a forklift and drove it off the loading dock. Surveying the damage, the owner shook his head and said he'd have to withhold 10 percent of Arnold's wages to pay for the repairs. "How much will it cost?" asked Arnold "About $4,500," said the owner. "What a relief!" exclaimed Arnold. "I've finally got job security!"

Pitching Tips-Flight Wobble and Landing

As in boxing, there are “right and left hooks” in horseshoe pitching. Right handed players should try to make their ringers hook onto the stake from the left-handed side. Left- handers should try for right hooks. That way, the shoes do not go too straight on the stake , thus lessening the hazard of rebound. The hooking-type shoe, with good wobble, will stay on much better than one that is thrown too flat and too straight on the stake. A good flight wobble helps break the shoe’s momentum in landing. The wobble imparts enough twists to the shoe to keep it from going on too straight and rebounding. A shoe will usually stay on when it hooks the stake from either side, just off center of the toe– caulk.

Too much flight– wobble can cause a shoe to travel erratically and fly off the stake. Also, it is difficult to watch in flight. Excessive wobble can be caused by too much arm and wrist effort. Another cause may be a faulty grip, especially if you try to correct the trajectory with your thumb when releasing the shoe. Some expert players have more wobble on their shoes than others. That depends on their grips and methods of delivering.

The “breaks of the game” mean a lot to champion pitchers. The way in which their shoes land can mean either the winning or losing of a title. When a shoe lands heel-caulks first, it nose-dives at the stake. It may either jump away or wedge against the stake. If the toe-caulk lands first, the shoe may either turn over backward or skid past the stake. The “dead-falling shoe,” with all the caulks landing simultaneously, is best. Horseshoes, like airplanes, must make a good three– point landing. Otherwise, they bounce, skid, and roll.

NORM’S NEWS

Norman Hansen wants to bring his horseshoe family up to date. He was diagnosed with a rare cancer (cancer of the bile duct) in February 2016. He’s been through radiation therapy and two months of chemotherapy. He is likely to enroll in home hospice care in the next few weeks. At 88 years old, he is in good spirits and living at home in Lake Forest Park with his son Barry. He’d enjoy hearing from you by phone or email, or even a short visit. On the tournament trail with...Lyle Soma

Lyle Soma learned to play horseshoes at family gatherings as a kid in Alberta where he lived until the age of thirteen. His family emigrated to Washington, settling first in Carnation and later in Arlington. Lyle occasionally played horseshoes over the years but really did not take it up as a pastime until he and his wife Alice began wintering in Arizona. He first played in Yuma at Araby Acres and then for the past five years has played with the Happy Trails Horseshoe Club in Surprise, AZ. He joined the WSHA five years ago and competed in Washington for the first time with Bill Kingsley in Spokane in 2013.

Lyle, formerly of Mukilteo, has lived in Chelan for the past 17 years where he is an avid golfer and an active member of the Lutheran Church. He keeps busy working in his yard, fishing, wintering in Arizona, traveling, and helping out wherever needed. He is an avid Seahawk and Mariner fan. Lyle has been married to Alice for forty-four years; he has four children and four grandchildren; he graduated from Tolt High School in 1955; and worked as an operating engineer for forty years, having his fifty-five year pin for Local 302 of the Operating Engineers. He worked for Associated Sand and Gravel and Hos Bros Construction. He spent three years working on the Alaska Pipeline, of which he is very proud as it was "hard and challenging."

Lyle practices by himself as Chelan has no active pitchers at this time. However, his favorite time of the day in Arizona is horseshoe pitching time which he does six days a week, being known for his cheerful attitude and "having a song for every occasion." Lyle enjoys horseshoes because of the exercise, friends he has made, the competition, and "getting out there and doing something." His favorite courts to pitch on are Burlington and Happy Trails, AZ. His current average is around 53.89%. Lyle tosses a flip shoe and he would love to attend a World tournament before hanging up his shoes.
