President's Reflections

Hello everyone. There is a lot of information in this edition of Shoes News and we hope you enjoy reading it. I finally made it to a tournament east of the Cascades where the sun shines and warms every bone...NOT! The Columbia Basin Open was lots of fun and I met some "easterners" for the first time. I had a bye for the first match of Class C and watched from a distance under the dry picnic shelter as the rain came down on all the happy, cold and wet pitchers. Fortunately the rain stopped after the first game so I remained dry for the day but the temperature was in the 50's. That's Seattle weather! Oh well. We all had fun, the other pitchers dried out eventually, and Vic and his team did an outstanding job directing the tournament. I'm quite sure the next time I pitch on the east side I will enjoy real sunshine and warm weather. Over on the west side in Seattle, the parking lot remains closed at the horseshoe pits until further notice.

So the Hansen Brothers Memorial in Seattle, scheduled for June 5, 2021, will be moved to Kitsap on Sunday, June 27, the day after the Kitsap Memorial tournament on Saturday, June 26. We will have two separate tournaments on that weekend. Please call me for registration for the Hansen Brothers Memorial at 206-226-7729 by Thursday evening, June 24 and please spread the news!

IN MEMORY

These past 16 months have found us losing several of our members – many who have been the heart and soul of their clubs and the state organization.

As we say goodbye, I'd like to remind folks that a great way to honor them is to buy a brick in their memory at the NHPF Hall of Fame Plaza.

The NHPA web site has all the forms and info regarding a donation.

WORLD TOURNAMENT 2021

I am so looking forward to the World Tournament in Winnamucca, Nevada this year. So far I see we have 12 from our state signed up to pitch. I will be manning the NHPF booth this year and am asking if anyone attending could help me out on occasion if you have some spare time. It's a great way to meet people – to answer questions – and to hear lots of stories. If anyone might be interested, please let me know.

Thanks, Phyl

TOURNAMENT DAY

As we drove down I-5 in the rain, we kept thinking "I am not going to pitch horseshoes in this weather", but when we arrived at Port Orchard for the Kitsap Open Mother Nature gave us a great dry day to pitch.

It is so good to be able to gather again and enjoy the competition. An added bonus for the day was having Art & Carol Sperber stop by and also Jean Covington. Natalie also stopped by and Rex Tauscher came and spent the day keeping score. We welcomed some new first time pitchers. And we also learned that one of our old time pitchers, Marlin Kerstetter, has passed away. Marlin was a member of the Olympia club. It was a day for being together with family again.

The Sperbers' Horseshoe Beginnings

The first horseshoe tournament Art and I attended was the 1975 Pacific Northwest in Yakima. In those days it was a very large tournament with many pitchers, plus wives and families - a big gathering. We didn't know it then, but the people at that tournament were to become familiar names and faces through our years in horseshoes. Henry Knauft was the champion, but it could have been any of the other northwest legends: Ed Fischel, John Monasmith, Herb Criss, or Cletus Chapelle, and more. All the top pitchers averaged in in the 70%. (Imagine an entire class of Russ Phillips's!) Those were 50-point games then, and, with such skilled pitchers, there were some very long games. In those days most of the crowd stayed to watch the finals of the top class, and what a show it was! One highlight I remember that brought about cheers and applause was Oregon's Lowell Davis coming up with a 93% game. When Art was pitching, I remember sitting in the bleachers, listening to the strangers around me, several commenting - "Who is that Sperber?" "He sure has a nice pitch!"

Art and Herb Criss at a World Tournament

Art ended up winning Class F! It was a start. After that they knew Art Sperber! From then on, Art pitched in many northwest tournaments, as well as some world tournaments with pitching friend and "coach", Bremerton's Kelly Laraway, and others. My interest grew gradually, first as a sometime spectator, then scorekeeper, and, finally, more than 10 years after that 1975 tournament, starting to pitch myself. I still have this record taped inside a cabinet door: 1987 11.92%; 1988 13.77%; and 1989 21.38% to remind me of what seemed like a slow process, but it was progress!. That was the beginning of our horseshoe "adventure". We've made many good friends and traveled to many places across the US and Canada with our horseshoes. We thought those were good times, but now realize they were great times! What a privilege it's been to be involved in a sport like horseshoes, with its welcoming acceptance of all levels of ability, its friendly competition that builds a confidence you didn't know you had, and the opportunity to continue participating as long as you are able.
