WIZDOM FROM THE PREZ

Hello everyone ! Only a handful of columns left to write before the next chapter of Washington State Horseshoes is led down, we hope a new and beneficial path. First let me say thank you to everyone who signed up to attend the 2025 World Tournament in Utah. I am so excited to see how we do.

While I have been going through the memories of playing horseshoes in the state of Washington, I want to remember some pitchers who are no longer with us in person, but always there in our minds. For me, the two that are forever a force of what horseshoes are to me would be my Dad first and Uncle Ed second. Ed Fishel to the old timers : how to carry yourself, how to compete, and most of all how to respect your opponent. They are not an enemy but someone trying to play to their potential . That is what I was told until I became a competitor. I know he wasn't the first guy I met, but the first one who spoke to the inner me....Bob Clark. I met him on my very first tournament at Woodland Park in Seattle. He had one hand bandaged from a fight with a saw. He pointed out each guy in our group who was going to be tough and who was going to show up because I was new. He let me know they were a force and they loved the game for the competition and friendship. He was always encouraging. He even seemed to root for you when he was on the other sidewalk.

I will be sharing more of my favorite memories in these last few columns. I challenge the rest of you to add your two cents into the Shoes News and the Washington State Facebook page. Why do you pitch ? You never know who will think and feel the same way.

See you on the courts,

News from around the state

The thought and Idea behind this section, which I hope to have as an ongoing section, is to report news from the different clubs in our Association. Any club that has information they want to “spread the news” about just e-mail the editor with your write ups.

The World Tournament is fast approaching. Washington has 30 entrants this year. That is so exciting. Our pitchers always make us proud.

We want to wish the best pitching ever for each of you.
