Commentary: Jim Link

Winetrou #3 is traditionally the date of the 1st. of two annual meetings of the WSHPA. Officers and club representatives show up from across the state to participate and to begin the job of defining the direction to steer the organization for the year.

Before the president opened the meeting new faces at the officers table gave substance to the notion that there will be a new direction in WA horseshoes going forward.

Assuring that progress is going to be made at an even faster pace than previously possible, is that on the tables of the officers were 3 laptop computers. In this computer age, almost all functions of the WSHPA going forward will be using that technology.

We can now order supplies from vendors on line, tournaments are run, tournament results are sent to natstats, membership renewals are submitted to the NHPA, communications are shared between association officers, the newsletter, graphics and information, all these functions are being done and enhanced through the use of the internet.

The ability to update records, share information, and conduct our business through that medium makes doing the many tasks that keep the WSHPA moving smoothly

Hello all! What a weekend!! We had Winetrout 4 yesterday. You can look at it in two different ways. We have some not so smart people in our group OR people who love to pitch horseshoes. I am going with people who love horseshoes.

It was 23 degrees and still 13 pitchers braved the cold to play. On the good side, it was an all 40 foot A class. We haven't seen one of those in awhile.

But the big "great job" goes to the girls that kept score for us : Nancy Stangland and Susan Clark. They sat out there all morning so we, as pitchers, would not have to pack scoreboards. Thank you ladies !!

Also, the new Enumclaw group brought a great hot lunch that we all ate and enjoyed.

I think some of us took a hit on our percentage, but had a great time working on our games.

See you on the courts,

Don

The nicest thing about the future is . . . that it always starts tomorrow. Money will buy a fine dog, but only kindness will make him wag his tail. If you don't have a sense of humor, you probably don't have any sense at all. A good time to keep your mouth shut is when you're in deep water. How come it takes so little time for a child who is afraid of the dark to become a teenager who wants to stay out all night? Business conventions are important—because they demonstrate how many people a company can operate without. Why is it that at class reunions you feel younger than everyone else looks? Scratch a cat . . . and you will have a permanent job. No one has more driving ambition than the teenage boy who wants to buy a car. There are no new sins; the old ones just get more publicity. There are worse things than getting a call for a wrong number at 4 a.m.—like, it could be the right number. No one ever says "It's only a game" when their team is winning. I've reached the age where 'happy hour' is a nap. Be careful about reading the fine print.—There's no way you're going to like it. The trouble with bucket seats is that not everybody has the same size bucket. Do you realize that, in about 40 years, we'll have thousands of old ladies running around with tattoos in strange laces? (And rap music will be the Golden Oldies!) Money can't buy happiness -- but somehow it's more comfortable to cry in a Cadillac than in a Yugo.

much less of a burden in terms of time for those doing those tasks.

For several years now nearly all tournaments in WA have been run on computers using software that can be downloaded from the NHPA website at no cost. That has been a huge benefit to TD's across the state. That the stats can now be done by one computer savvy person frees the TD to pitch in his tournament if he or she wishes.

Hollis Morris brings us a new advertiser. The Clover Island Inn in Kennewick is eager to get acquainted with horseshoe pitchers. You can help Shoes News by patronizing out advertisers. They are important to us.

Now is the time to start thinking about tournament ads in the newsletter. If you want to note some special features about your tournament in the newsletter, contact Shoes News with your information. We will put together an ad featuring your tournament information. If you do not call, space permitting, we will put in an ad with generic information only. Otherwise the only place your ad will appear is on the back page.

There is always space in the newsletter for your comments, most memorable games, or you can write a commentary on the front page.

We also need an interviewer. Someone needs to interview Gerald Stangland. A big thanks is in order to him for bringing a new energy and new pitchers into the WSHPA.

Winetroutr #4

There were 13 diehards that pitched in Winetroutr # 4 on Saturday, February 26. We had more sign up, but because of the weather and illnesses, we only had 13 pitchers. There were 7 pitchers in A class and 6 in B class. The A class were all 40' pitchers. The temperature was below freezing and the snowflakes flew the whole time. A hearty thank you to the two scorekeepers, Nancy Stangland and Susan Clark. They were so cold, but they hung in there. Also, we had Debi McRae and John Alexander that came just to support the pitchers. Thank you.

I think everyone had a good time, a cold good time that is !! Hopefully, our weather will improve for the last two Winetroutrs of 2011.
