President's Reflections

Chris and I just got back from Las Vegas where the sun shines, the wind blows, and the money disappears like magic. It was fun watching the NFL draft crew setting up structures over the Bellagio pond for television telecasts, and watching fans walking the strip in their favorite NFL team jerseys. I was hoping to get a call from Bill Belichick, Todd Bowles, new head coach of the Tampa Bay Bucs, or Pete Carroll in the early rounds to at least try out for a backup water boy. No call, no worries. I will have more time to practice on the courts. The Odessa Open and the Columbia Basin Open were held while I was gone and I found the Columbia Basin Open results from eshoes and we have copied them to this edition. I am looking forward to seeing many of you at the Kitsap Open on May 7th.
