PILLARS OF OUR HORSESHOE CLUBS.

I would like to say what "pillars" these two people are to horseshoes. They are the ones that keep us going in the right direction and who we can lean on to get answers. They have done so much for horseshoes !!

Presidents Reflections

Our last two tournaments are in the books now, so we look forward to the holiday season and the New Year. Fall color seems brighter this year, maybe due to the dry summer. I bought my favorite seasonal bag of candy for the trick or treaters (we never get any) so I enjoy their treats! Chris will partake once in a while. Curtis Lee is working on the schedule for next year and I still do not have any confirmed information concerning the Winetrouts for 2022, but I am working on an idea that Curt gave me. I'll send emails as soon as I know more. Although there are no more tournaments in Washington, some of you will undoubtedly pitch in Arizona and maybe California. We all need to practice as much as we can to prepare for next year. Chris and I hope everyone stays healthy and may God bless you all.

The 2021 State Singles and Doubles Tournaments were held in Spokane this year. The number of entrants was sadly very low and therefore the percentage spreads were wide, but the pitching was fierce and competitive.

Matt Fuller retained his State Men's Champion as did Cindy Clausen as Women's State Champion. Don Lindbo was crowned the new Elder's Men Champion and Jon Martin took the Men's A Class 1st place. Earl Hertlein captured the Elder A 1st place. The weather cooperated beautifully. Good lunches were served each day by the Spokane Club. The banquet and general meeting were held at the Golden Corral restaurant.

We were honored by the presence of Jason Knauff who was inducted into the Junior Hall of Fame. Also in attendance was past pitcher Jeanette McCarthy who accepted her grandson, Patrick McCarthy's plaque, as he too was inducted into the Junior Hall of Fame. Both Jason, his wife, Tanya, and Jeanette stayed all three days at the tournament. Was so great to see them. The Doubles Tournament took place on Monday where Cindy Clausen and Nick Nicholson were the Doubles Champions and Earl Hertlein and John De Mello were class A Champions and congrats to all who participated, as our State Tournament represents the best of our pitchers.

A big thank you to the Spokane Club for a great job hosting. A few raindrops delayed the opening pitch of the Pacific NW Tournament this year in Kennewick. But it was only a 1½ hour delay and then the weather gave us two days of great pitching. (A little wind beats rain any day!)

The number of pitchers was sadly low but five classes competed in some nail biting finishes. Laurie Dale from Idaho was crowned the Pacific NW Champion. Vic Magus captured Class B, Earl Hertlein Class C, Herb Milbourn Class D, Jeff Watkins Class E and Alex Blanchard Cadet A.

Jeanette McCarthy accepting for her grandson, Patrick McCarthy

The Columbia Cup this year found its way back to Washington.

A great banquet was held at the Clover Island Inn. A surprised Jon Martin was awarded the "Mr. Horseshoe" Award and there is always a fun gift exchange.

The Columbia Cup this year found its way back to Washington. Special thanks to Barry Chapelle for continuing to direct and lead this great 3 state tournament that has been in existence for years.
