President's Reflections

It is officially fall season but summer is not letting go just yet. The sun continues to shine on us and we have had some fun tournaments. The Bellingham Club put on a great State Tournament for us this year and we look forward to next year's State Tournament hosted by the Olympia Club. It is so good to see and talk with all of you. We have a great horseshoe pitching family! I visited the Seattle pits and the Parks Department has been doing some work there, edging and adding material to the pits. They look pretty good considering the neglect over the past couple years. Depending on the cost and availability of the lawn bowling facility, we may hold the 2023 Winetrouts in Seattle. I will know more later.

God bless you all, Jon.

A successful Pacific NW Tournament has come to an end for another year. And the reign of our leader, Barry Chapelle, has also come to an end as he resigned as President due to health reasons. However, a new era has begun as Russ Watkins and his son, Jeff, will take over the reins of this tournament.

29 pitchers competed for two days in some hard fought battles. A playoff game in Class A between the defending champion, Laurie Dale from Idaho and Washington's Cindy Clausen found Cindy emerging as this years' tournament Champion. Also Class C ended in a playoff game between Mo Adamo of Oregon and Bonnie Lewis, WA, with Bonnie claiming Class C champion. Bob Sperber had a no loss record for Class B champion. Sid Gire was Class D champion, Rob Hettinga Class E champion, Brian Poole from Idaho was Class F champion and Alex Blanchard, the Cadet champion.

Vic Magnus and the Kennewick crew provided great weather – not too hot, not too cool and NOT windy. Saturday eve all enjoyed the banquet, meeting and gift exchange at the Clover Island Inn. It was a great weekend.

The Pacific Northwest Tournament was founded by Cletus Chapelle, Barry's dad, in 1946 and has been held continuously ever since. Barry started pitching in it in 1967 and was elected President in 1975. Barry said this was not HIS tournament but belongs to all who pitch in it. (But we kinda know it really has been his tournament!!)

We want to thank Barry for his dedication and exemplary leadership all these years – such a special man.

Russ – Jeff, we know you cannot fill those giant shoes, but we also know your shoes have a path of their own and we wish you the best. Our organization is in good hands.

God bless one and all.
