Commentary: Jim Link

Dealing with the quirks of computers, can be frustrating, but compared to dealing with the quirks of government agencies, computers are child's play.

We try to get the newsletter in the mail in a timely manner so it gets to your mailbox as near to the first of each month as we can. August's Shoes News was mailed from a little town in Minnesota. After finding a great little print shop that did a quick, terrific job of printing at a decent price, I took a tray of about 200 newsletters to the post office and mailed them. The Minnesota postal person said she thought that they should be sealed "in a different way" than I had done it.

About two days after mailing, a call from the folks who were picking up my mail at home back in WA informed me that about 80 newsletters had shown up in my mailbox with a note that they didn't meet the standards for mailing an article of that size.

When I got home and read the accompanying photocopied government regulation, which was all but indecipherable, what I was able to gather was, that there ought to be two seals on the edge away from the folded edge instead of the single one that I had been using for over ten years. Each seal should be within an inch from the edge along the long seam of the newsletter.

So after getting home, I resealed the 80 or so newsletters that had been returned. Thankfully the stamps hadn't been cancelled.

I took them to my local post office. Our new postmaster, wanting to be helpful, told me that he would find the regulation and send me a copy.

The copy arrived. He had highlighted the pertinent part of the regulation and in his judgment, the way that I had been doing it for ten years was right. The newsletters should not have been returned.

I reread the 'reg' that he sent me. I think he is wrong. The Minnesota person, had it right. The way

COOL, CALM, CONCENTRATED.
That was our Matt.

Is it a ringer? A closer lookand YES – the roar of the crowd confirmed that Matt Fuller was the new JUNIOR WORLD CHAMPION. Matt's arms extended skyward and his humble exuberance touched the hearts of all the spectators. WOW – it was a moment we will all remember – you made us so proud Matt.

Our congratulations to a young man who has worked hard through the years and stayed focused on his goal – no one deserved this more than you, Matt Fuller, our Junior World Champion!!

State Singles Tournament

Sat, Sun and Mon. Labor Day weekend Sept 5th, 6th, & 7th at Franklin Park here in Spokane. The dinner on Sunday is going to be held at the Eagles Club. There is also camping available at the Eagles. They have some hook-ups but on a first come basis. They also have dry camping there in the parking lot for $5.00 a night. It is only about 5 blocks from the park. We are also checking into other camping options if anyone is interested. They won't be as close though. If you have any questions you can call me at 509-842-4959.

Hello all,

What a GREAT World Tournament in Cedar Rapids ! Washington has a national champion. Way to go Matt ! We also have several competitors that finished high in their classes. Congratulations to you all. Washington was well represented. Thank you to all who participated. You made Washington proud.

Something on the negative side : I have witnessed and been told about complaints from 40 footers having to pitch 30 footers. This is unacceptable. We have to integrate these two groups in order to have enough participants in each class. If you have any questions or comments about this subject, please feel free to talk to me at an upcoming tournament.

Thank you to the clubs that run tournaments. We really appreciate the time it takes to put these on. It is a great time to get together with our horseshoe friends and competitors.

See you on the courts.

Don

Hope you will pass this on to everyone regarding lodging for the state tournament.

We are having the Sunday night dinner at that Eagles club. They also have 10 RV hook-ups on a first come bases- They can not be reserved- $15.00 a night and a large parking lot that you can dry camp for $5.00 a night. They have a dump station. The Eagles is located only 1 mile from the pits.

There is another campground called Alderwood Campground which is located 6.7 miles from the park. Very easy to find. It is north of Franklin Park on division to the Y which is hwy 395 and US 2. It is on US2 4.2 miles from the Y on the left. They will give a 10% discount if you mention you are with the horseshoe club. The number is 1-888-847-0500. It's very nice.

If anyone needs directions or has questions they can call me at 509-842-4959.

On division north of Franklin Park there are several hotels including a Ramada Inn, Comfort Inn, and Quality Inn. They are all within 3 miles of the pits. If anyone wants to tent, call me and we'll see what we can come up with.

DON'T FORGET TO CALL MARGARET BY-FIELD TO SIGN-UP TO PLAY -- PHONE 360-424-3642

To those who don't know- The tournament is at Franklin Park, Spokane, WA. From I-90 exit Division street(also Hwy 395 and US2 North). Go north 5 to 6 miles. There is the North Twon mall on the right and Franklin Park on the left. Turn left on Queen street.

Any questions- call me. Jeanette McCarthy-president of the Spokane Horseshoes.

I read it, if the newsletter is printed on 20 lb. paper, (which it is) in the size we use, then one must seal it an inch from each edge, away from the folded edge. So, starting with this newsletter, that is the way the newsletter will be sealed.

Sadly, the end of the year for horseshoe pitching is approaching. How years become shorter as we grow older is one of nature's wonders. Ronald Reagan, when he visited the place where he grew up said, "How did they shrink the house"? I find myself with the same sense of wonderment when I contemplate how fast the years go by at this time in my life.

But the best tournaments of the year are still coming up. The State Singles is always a premier event for horseshoe pitchers as is the Northwest Open. Then we'll have the "Turkey Shoot" the States NHPF benefit tournament. Don't miss it...turkeys are on order

THE WORLD TOURNAMENT 2010

We drove to Cedar Rapids, Iowa, and found ourselves in another WORLD – tournament, that is! It was a great setup with 2 ice arena's back to back and lots of spectator seating, especially in the large arena. The amenities and staff offices were all in the entering lobby, so everything was very handy.

A first this year was the use of the electronic Horseshoe Master Scorekeeper in one section of the players. It really is amazing and so easy. All scores, shoes & number of ringers are displayed on a large monitor and at the end of the game one click of a button and all is sent direct to the master computer. It's the wave of the future. Ask Don Davis all about it, he so enjoyed working in that area.

Washington State was well represented with 17 entrants and almost half placed in the money. Bill Kingsley placed 5th in his class, Art Sperber placed 4th, Truman Hopper earned a Jr. Trophy, Trudy Oye and John McCarthy each placed 3rd earning trophies also, Russ Phillips placed 5th in the Elder Championship class, Don Davis placed 9th in the World and Matt Fuller is the Jr. World Champion. Well done State of Washington.

It was great to connect with friends from around the world. Inge from Norway joined us and a group from South Africa put on demonstrations of their favorite sport, Jukskei. They plan on sending horseshoe pitchers to next years' World tournament. And we all made new friends.

Start saving you pennies and mark your calendars for 2011 and travel to Monroe, Louisiana. Everyone should experience a World Tournament at least once. Hopefully you'll find that World Tournaments are like potato chips – you can't just have one!!

IRISH MOOSE HUNTERS in Canada
Two Irish hunters got a pilot to fly them to Canada to hunt moose. They managed to bag six. As they were loading the plane to return, the pilot said the plane could take only 4 moose. The two lads objected strongly. "Last year we got six. The pilot let us take them all and he had the same plane as yours."

Reluctantly, the pilot gave in and all six were loaded. However, even on full power, the little plane couldn't handle the load and went down.

Somehow, surrounded by the moose bodies, Paddy and Mick survived the crash. After climbing out of the wreckage, Paddy asked Mick, "Any idea where we are?" Mick replied, "I think we're pretty close to where we crashed last year."

Guidelines

January 2010

III. GUIDELINES - The Guidelines section provides suggestions/recommendations for sanctioned league and/or tournament play, including suggested formats for Doubles Play. Also included here are guidelines for calling the score, keeping score, judging, and the use of pacers.

GUIDELINE I – DOUBLES PLAY

In doubles play, two contestants are partners against another team of two contestants. One contestant from each team will be at each end of the court and the tournament officials should match the contestants so that the highest rated contestant (by percentage) from each team will be pitching from the same end of the court. The Tournament Committee will determine the length of the game and method of play. When contestants are pitching their shoes, the contestants at the other end should be well behind and to the side of the pitcher's box (for their own safety) and in a stationary position so as not to distract the contestants on their own or adjacent courts. Otherwise, all the Playing Rules for singles play shall apply.

Section A – Regular Doubles

In regular doubles, both team members use the same pair of shoes and all contestants stay at the same end of the court for the entire game. To begin the game, the highest-rated contestants will decide on the first pitch and deliver their shoes, just as in singles competition. Their partners, at the opposite end, will decide on and call the score, retrieve the shoes, and pitch them back following the same procedure. The decision on who pitches first in each inning depends upon the scoring system being used, following the rules of singles play. A single score sheet should be used that clearly shows the ringers and shoes pitched by all contestants.

Section B – Walking Doubles

In walking doubles, all contestants will pitch their own shoes. A single score sheet should be used that clearly shows the ringers and shoes pitched by all contestants.

Shoe-limit Games – The lower-rated contestants will decide on the first pitch and pitch their four (4) shoes. The higher-rated pitchers will then pitch their four (4) shoes and all pitchers will then walk to the opposite end, decide on the scoring, and pick up their shoes. The scores of the highest-rated team should be recorded first and they will also pitch first for the remainder of the game. Which one of them (and their opponents) pitches first depends upon the scoring system (cancellation or count-all) being used, following the rules of singles play. This procedure will continue until the game is over.

Point-limit Games – The higher-rated contestants will decide on the first pitch and pitch their four (4) shoes. The lower-rated contestants will determine the scoring for these shoes. The partner of the pitcher who scores (or the partner of the contestant who pitched last, in case of a no-score situation) will call or record the score and will pitch first in the next inning. All pitchers will now walk to the opposite end. The highest-rated contestants will pick up their shoes (already scored) and step back. The scoring of the last four (4) shoes pitched will be determined and called or recorded. The contestant calling the score always pitches first. This procedure is continued until the game is over. For safety or other reasons, the Tournament/League Officials may select an alternative walking sequence, as long as the scoring sequence remains the same.

Why did the chicken cross the road?

SARAH PALIN: The chicken crossed the road because gosh-darn it, he's a maverick!

BARACK OBAMA: The chicken crossed the road because it was time for change! The chicken wanted change!

JOHN MC CAIN: My friends, that chicken crossed the road because he recognized the need to engage in cooperation and dialogue with all the chickens on the other side of the road.

HILLARY CLINTON: When I was First Lady, I personally helped that little chicken to cross the road. This experience makes me uniquely qualified to ensure right from Day One that every chicken in this country gets the chance it deserves to cross the road. But then, this really isn't about me.

GEORGE W. BUSH: We don't really care why the chicken crossed the road. We just want to know if the chicken is on our side of the road, or not. The chicken is either against us, or for us. There is no middle ground here.

DICK CHENEY: Where's my gun?

COLIN POWELL: Now to the left of the screen, you can clearly see the satellite image of the chicken crossing the road.

BILL CLINTON: I did not cross the road with that chicken. What is your definition of chicken?

AL GORE: I invented the chicken.

JOHN KERRY: Although I voted to let the chicken cross the road, I am now against it! It was the wrong road to cross, and I was misled about the chicken's intentions. I am not for it now, and will remain against it.

AL SHARPTON: Why are all the chickens white? We need some black chickens.

DR. PHIL: The problem we have here is that this chicken won't realize that he must first deal with the problem on this side of the road before it goes after the problem on the other side of the road. What we need to do is help him realize how stupid he's acting by not taking on his current problems before adding new problems.

OPRAH: Well, I understand that the chicken is having problems, which is why he wants to cross this road so bad. So instead of having the chicken learn from his mistakes and take falls, which is a part of life, I'm going to give this chicken a NEW CAR so that he can just drive across the road and not live his life like the rest of the chickens.

ANDERSON COOPER, CNN: We have reason to believe there is a chicken, but we have not yet been allowed to have access to the other side of the road.

NANCY GRACE: That chicken crossed the road because he's guilty! You can see it in his eyes and the way he walks.

PAT BUCHANAN: To steal the job of a decent, hardworking American.

MARTHA STEWART: No one called me to warn me which way that chicken was going. I had a standing order at the Farmer's Market to sell my eggs when the price dropped to a certain level. No little bird gave me any insider information.

DR SEUSS: Did the chicken cross the road? Did he cross it with a toad? Yes, the chicken crossed the road, but why it crossed I've not been told.

ERNEST HEMINGWAY: To die in the rain, alone.

JERRY FALWELL: Because the chicken was gay! Can't you people see the plain truth? That's why they call it the 'other side.' Yes, my friends, that chicken is gay. And if you eat that chicken, you will become gay too. I say we boycott all chickens until we sort out this abomination that the liberal media whitewashes with seemingly harmless phrases like 'the other side.' That chicken should not be crossing the road. It's as plain and as simple as that.

GRANDPA: In my day we didn't ask why the chicken crossed the road. Somebody told us the chicken crossed the road, and that was good enough.

BARBARA WALTERS: Isn't that interesting? In a few moments, we will be listening to the chicken tell, for the first time, the heart warming story of how it experienced a serious case of molting, and went on to accomplish it's lifelong dream of crossing the road.

ARISTOTLE: It is the nature of chickens to cross the road.

JOHN LENNON: Imagine all the chickens in the world crossing roads together, in peace.

BILL GATES: I have just released eChicken2010, which will not only cross roads, but will lay eggs, file your important documents, and balance your checkbook. Internet Explorer is an integral part of eChicken2010. This new platform is much more stable and will never reboot.

ALBERT EINSTEIN: Did the chicken really cross the road, or did the road move beneath the chicken?

COLONEL SANDERS: Did I miss one?
