Washington State Singles Champions 2015

Commentary: Jerry Clark

I always enjoy the ride up I-5 from Camano Island to the Bellingham International in late August every year. The scenery is always beautiful, and I know I'm going to be in for an all-around fun day of horseshoe pitching at Cornwall Park. This year was no exception, as 38 pitchers, including 14 Canadians came together in Bellingham on a pleasant sunny, mid seventies day. The five classes were very competitive, and with nine scorekeepers the pitchers could concentrate fully on their games. We stopped halfway through our schedule of games to enjoy a wonderful lunch, put on by the Bellingham Club. It was delicious, and got us all fueled up for our afternoon round of games. At the end of the day, the class winners were:

- Class A Champion Lee Zalesny
- Class B Champion Lee Shinn
- Class C Champion Dan Coffin
- Class D Champion Orlean Clinton
- Class E Champion Gary Shinpaugh
- Jr Champion Patrick McCarthy

After a few years of dwindling numbers, it appears the Bellingham Club is making somewhat of a comeback with now 12 or 13 members attending their weekly practices. The Burlington Club had 24 pitchers at last week's Tuesday night practice, so it

DON'S MESSAGE

Is everyone excited! It is getting that time of the year. State champions are about to be crowned. Burlington is getting ready to host this year's championships and I am sure, as always it will be a top notch affair. Looking forward to seeing everyone there. Rhonda and I traveled to Spokane this last month to play some shoes over the mountain. As always, Henry Knauft stopped by for a visit. Maybe the best pitcher to come out of Washington State horseshoes. I was able to spend some time with Henry and what a gentleman! I love hearing the stories of his days pitching horseshoes. You can really feel the pride he takes being a top pitcher in the hay day of the sport. Also he was talking about the letter written that asked where have all the high percentage pitchers gone. Henry was saying that we have so many interests that keep so many busy going in all directions that no one is spending the time to be super great. Between golf, bowling, softball leagues, and basketball leagues we just don't put in the practice time that is needed. He was saying that was their time filler, basically work and play horseshoes. Thank you for your time Henry!

Also, I would like to say how saddened I was when we heard about Mary Ebey. It seems like only yesterday I was doing a skit at the state tournament and she was my queen and Russ and I were trying to remember our lines. Mary was the back bone of the whole skit. Our thoughts and prayers go out to Don and their family.

See you on the courts. Don

IN MEMORY OF RICHARD (DICK) SATHER

Dick Sather passed away July 20, 2015 at home. He was born March 1, 1921 in Craig Colorado. He resided in Kennewick for the last 72 years. Dick retired as a manager after 40 years with du Pont, General Electric, and United Nuclear Corporation.

Dick was a competitive sportsman. He played on a state championship basketball team in Hartwick, Iowa with a roster of 9 players. He also played on the Richland all-star basketball and baseball teams into his thirties. Later he became an award winning bowler and horseshoe pitcher. Dick hunted and fished from his youth and enjoyed going out into deep water in small boats. One of his greatest joys was trips with the Kennewick Caravaners RV Travel Club. Dick is survived by his wife of 71 years, Virginia, son Neil, grandchildren: Jubal, Garth, and Sophia; niece Teri (Sather) Le Fever and nephew Charles Sather. He was preceded in death by his parents, stepmother Noreen, and Brother Edward (Ted) Sather.

Dick Sather was a charter member of the CBHC in Kennewick. He pitched in our first sanctioned tournament, the Columbia Basin Open in 1988. Dick was a real gentleman, he will be missed by all of us.

Thoughts and Prayers

In Loving Memory of Mary Ebey July 29, 1943 – August 4, 2015

Celebrating the Life of Mary Ebey will be on the 19th of September 2015 at 1:00pm to 3:00pm at her brother's house. The address is: 928 S. 211th Pl., Des Moines, WA 98198.

Coffee, punch and finger snacks will be available. This will be very informal.

If anyone needs direction please feel free to call Don at Home 360-826-4649 or cell 206-459-1469.

FINAL THOUGHTS FROM TOPEKA

Topeka, Kansas was this year's spot for World Tournament pitching. It was hot, humid and stormy at times, but none of that affected the upbeat mood of the players. The host hotel, Capital Plaza, was connected by covered walkways to the Expo Center arena. It was first class all the way. The Kansas horseshoe pitchers, led by Roger Vogel and Terry Cuthbertson, are to be congratulated on a fantastic job well done.

Washington was represented by 3 Junior/Cadets and 9 adults. Sharon McLaughlin was our standout, placing 4th in her class and Patrick McCarthy was seeded into the Cadet Championships.

The ESPN broadcast was pretty exciting – if you watched, you would have seen Don Davis pitching in the background in some of the interviews and Patrick in the background of the broadcast table. The NHPA office had over 100 calls following the broadcast inquiring as to where they could hook up to pitch!! Media coverage is so far reaching – it is what we need.

Rules were covered in this years' Convention which made it a quite long meeting. And a record breaking number attended the Banquet this year where the Red Carpet was rolled out!

Alan Francis made his 20th World Title look so easy and a very exciting finish saw Debra Brown claim the Women's Championship title.

Great times – great competition – great friends – great memories. We'll do it all over again next year in Montgomery, Alabama.

looks like our states two most northwestern clubs are looking strong in 2015.

After near perfect weather all summer, the week before the State Singles in Burlington, the skies became a little problematic. When Labor Day weekend finally arrived, we had one day with a morning of rain and a perfect afternoon, sandwiched between two very nice days, not bad. The pitching was great all weekend and a number of office appointments and other decisions were voted on and passed at the WSHPA General Meeting on Sunday evening. Dennis Tutewiler was elected as the new president. Don Ebey was elected as our new first Vice President, and Gaylord Lund as our new second Vice President. Don Davis shared with the general membership gracious words of the contributions of so many that have assisted him during his time as president, and that was followed by loud applause and a standing ovation by the entire membership. It was one of those moments that we will always remember, and speaking for many, I don't think there was a dry eye in the room.

The singles tournament produced two, first time State Champions, Women's Champion, Kaiti Reeves, and Elders Champion, Ray Powell. The Tournament Pitcher of the Year for 2015 was Charlie Tapper. There were no inductees into the WSHPA Hall of Fame, or Junior Hall of Fame for 2015. The sight for the 2016 State Singles Championships, will be Spokane, and the Doubles State Championships will be held in Bellingham.

Congratulations to the Skagit Valley Horseshoe Club in Burlington, for hosting this year's tournament. It was a big success, with 61 pitchers participating in the competition over the Labor Day weekend, that crowned ten class champions! Make it a point to attend next year's tournament on Labor Day weekend at Franklin Park in Spokane Washington.

Note: General Meeting minutes from this years state tournament will be printed in the Oct. Shoes News.

The law professor was lecturing on court room procedure. "When you are fighting a case and have the facts on your side hammer away at the facts. If you have the law on your side, hammer away with the law."
"But what if you have neither the facts or the law on your side?"
"In that case," said the professor, "hammer away on the table."

The Pacific Northwest Open has Quite a History

This article was written for the October 2012 Shoes News by Barry Chapelle. Edited a little bit for space.

We did not have a big crowd for the Northwest at Yakima this year, but we had our usual good time, including the annual Saturday night banquet. We hope to continue on for many years to come.

The Northwest was started in 1946 by my father, Cletus Chapelle, and Gene Patrick from Toppenish, as a way to get the Washington, Oregon and Idaho pitchers together. John Monasmith soon became involved also. It was pitched at the Yakima fairgrounds on eight courts and limited to the top sixteen entrants, determined by qualifying scores. They played for prize money donated by the fair board. The same general format was used until 1965, when the Yakima Park Bureau and Yakima Horseshoe Club built courts at Elks Memorial Park. There were originally sixteen courts, but over the years more were added (and improved) to get to the present twenty six. That year, they had forty four men entrants, I was one of them. I did not attend in 1966 as our first daughter was born that weekend, but returned in 1967 and have not missed one since. In 1967, the record showed 56 men, 6 women and 4 juniors and after that the attendance kept increasing. IN 1981, we had a record 145 entrants.

Since 1965, the tournament has always been played two weekends after Labor Day weekend, so the dates could be anywhere from Sept 13-14 to Sept 19-20. There are no records of any prize money after the move to Elks Memorial Park, just trophies and (in later years) the plaques we now give. We have no plans to change (unless a sugar daddy flies in with big bucks) as the awards we now give help maintain the uniqueness of this tournament. The tournament is managed by a small group of officers who receive nothing for their work, but do it for their love of the game and the people who play it. I have been President since 1975 and except for presiding at the banquet (where we also have a short business meeting), I don't do much. During those years we've been blessed to have three of Washington's finest as secretary and they should get most of the credit for the success of this tournament. Beth Carvo, Carolyn Ferguson, and Phyl Quist have been the gals who have taken registrations, set up the tournament, collected the entry fees, coordinated the stat work etc and done all the heavy work. In addition we can be thankful for Ken Carvo and Vern Miller who as first Vice President did the local work of coordinating with the Park Bureau on park reservations, RV parking and Porta-Potties, getting the courts ready, handling coffee & donuts etc. Ken is now gone - and how we miss him - but we are fortunate to have Jerry Conklin, Lee Zalesny and Ray Powell to fulfill these duties.

This is who we are and how things get done. The people who organized, structured and ran this tournament the first 30 years did a good job and the people who I mentioned in the previous paragraph have had to make very few changes. We just continue on and try to do the best we can. I think this is a special event—one where we can get together one final time as our season is ending for not only good competition on the courts, but a great evening of fun, food and fellowship at the banquet. I am biased because my father helped start it, but it does mean a lot to me. I have no magic formula on hand but, hopefully we can rebuild the attendance for both the tournament and the banquets.

The 85 year old woman decided to take up sky diving. After she attended instruction classes, the day came for her first jump. Strapping on a parachute, she stood awaiting her turn to leap out of the plane. But when she looked at the ground below, she lost her nerve.

Finally, she reached into her pocket, pulled out a small transmitter and radioed her instructor on the ground: "Help! I've gotten up and I can't fall down!"

Son to his father as they watched television:

"Dad, tell me again how when you were a kid you had to walk all the way across the room to change the channel."
